

You are cordially invited:

on the OUTD⊕⊖RS of
AEGEAN PREHISTORY

Colloquium

Athens, 17 – 18 May 2018

Organized by

Eleni Hatzaki and Paschalis Zafeiriadis

The topic of the colloquium is the archaeology of outdoor spaces in the Prehistoric Aegean, and specifically how outdoor spaces can be smoothly incorporated in the study and interpretation of socio-economic structures in prehistoric societies. The scope of the colloquium spans throughout the prehistoric periods of the wider Aegean region, i.e., from the earlier Neolithic periods of northern Greece to the Late Bronze Age ‘palatial’ societies of Minoan Crete and the Mycenaean mainland.

Thursday, May 17 15:00-20:00 & Friday, May 18 10:00-20:00

on the premises of the Norwegian Institute at Athens

Tsami Karatasou 5, 5th Floor (Koukaki)

Due to limited seating, registration is required. To register please contact
